THE SUMMERS GLOBAL TEAM is a network sales team serving residential and commercial real estate needs around the world.

SGT consists of top global professionals with an informed view of the real estate sector. The team collaborates to market and bring more international buyers to your property and buyers will have easier access to purchase homes around the world. We are uniquely positioned to make worldwide real estate deals at all price points. No matter what city in what country, our team can provide their professionalism, expertise, and knowledge of global home buying and selling.

For buyers, we provide dependable advice, travel to property visits, and finalize the deal by working with accountants, lawyers and management companies creating a seamless experience. Our commercial team has built the first pan-European marketplace for commercial real estate by connecting investors to investment opportunities across the globe. Our marketing program is worldwide, technology-driven, and personalized for each client. Confidentiality is always key from beginning to end.
